▶ JLICENSE ALLOWS YOU TO LEGALLY...

Stream, post, and archive your use of covered songs in any worship service and lifecycle, concert, or other event for your community.

Make rehearsal and resource recordings for educational and practice purposes, and distribute the recordings within your community.

Project on screen and reproduce (in handouts, songsheets, and bulletins) copyrighted lyrics.

Make custom musical arrangements, adaptations, and editions for your use.

Post to social media your usages of covered songs.

The Fine Print

JLicense is a broadcast and performance license, and does not include the right to reprint in permanent congregational songbooks or to make photocopies of sheet music for performance. You are required by law to purchase the appropriate amount of music for your ensemble. For songbooks and sheet music, please visit TranscontinentalMusic.com.

Transcontinental Music and most popular Jewish composers and songwriters are participating members. Check JLicense.com for a complete list of songs, artists, and composers.

HOW DOES JLICENSE WORK?

It's quite simple: Log into your JLicense.com account and report which songs you used at a service or event. The system will remember your entries from the previous login, and most of the repertoire you use will already be in the JLicense database. This allows you to easily click and report, quickly becoming part of your work routine. If a song is not in the database, our team will review the title and do their best to add it.

HOW LONG DOES MY LICENSE LAST?

JLicense is available as an annual license (based on congregational or organizational membership size), a single-use/24-hour license (based on event attendance), a special event/7-day license (based on event attendance), or an Individual Performer license.

And here's the best part:

the composers, authors, and publishers responsible for your program or worship content will be paid fairly for your use of their work.

▶ ABOUT JLICENSE

JLicense is the only music licensing agency primarily serving the international Jewish community. We are a non-profit organization owned and administered by Transcontinental Music Publications, the world's leading publisher of Jewish music, founded in 1938.

JLicense was created by clergy and professionals from within the organized Jewish world to serve as an all-encompassing licensing agency for Jewish communities, with the mission of helping to support the creation of new Jewish music by fairly compensating its composers and songwriters.
